

NEW GERMAN WAR MINISTER IS VON STEIN

(By Review Leased Wire.)
BERLIN, Oct. 30.—Lieutenant General von Stein has been appointed war minister by the emperor, says an official announcement from headquarters. General von Stein, who at the beginning of the war was quartermaster general, is popular throughout the empire on account of his laconic war bulletins issued from headquarters. Later he was commander of the 14th army corps on the west front.
General von Stein succeeds Lieutenant General von Hohenborn, who is given command of an army corps on the west front.
The announcement explains that the change was deemed necessary because of the increasing volume of requirements of the armies in the field demanded that the minister at home, who is responsible for military measures, must have thorough experience as an army commander, so that he may be qualified to judge of these requirements.

numerical strength. We know no numerical superiority."
"Fate" Will Decide
General von Ludendorff, taking up the subject, said:
"Numerical superiority and danger only exist for the weak. The objects against fate ought better to object against himself. A firm will command fate. There is no blind fate."
"The new Russian armies are as good and as bad as the former. The main quality of the Russian soldier is blind obedience. He makes no progress of a military kind, only the Russian artillery has become more efficient on account of instruction by French and Japanese officers, who partly command. But our artillery remains superior."
Russ Short of Munitions
"During a certain period the Russians had more munitions than they formerly had. Their munition supplies have now become diminished because of the end of importation by way of Archangel and Vladivostok.
The correspondent asked whether in the opinion of the general staff the termination of the war was only possible in the east, to which Field Marshal von Hindenburg replied:

"People don't know what nonsense they talk. One does a great injustice to an army commander by attributing to him a program. He certainly has in his head a plan of war, a general view of war. But there are no prepared programs, except that one—to gain victory. Where and how that shall be done can only be decided each moment anew on the basis of events. Therefore, a decision can be looked for as well in the east as in the west."
Line Will Never Break
"It is nonsense if they tell you that I intend to shorten my front in the west. I never thought of it. Why should I do it? The front in the west stands as firm as a rock and if our enemies, by gigantic force of artillery and gain a little terrain, they shall never break through in order to do this they would still have to attack for 30 years, provided they had enough men."

sumption only. According to the press accounts, this postscript was added rather surreptitiously and under star-chamber proceedings and was withdrawn only because the few mainly members of the cabinet happened to discover its existence by luck and threatened to turn the government upside down.
"I assure you Sir, I deeply regret being drawn into this affair; but I cannot sit idly by and see you called a liar when I know your statements are true."
"My friend Major Breckenridge several times made remarks similar to those reported by Prof. Bailey. I cannot swear to every minute detail for my memory is only human; but the general substance of your statement is correct to my personal knowledge."
"As I have telegraphed to Major Breckenridge to tell him of my proposed action, and as his remarks were not secret, and as Prof. Bailey has already interviewed the major, I feel obliged to state that I know your statement is true. With regard to Major Breckenridge he is one of the finest of American gentlemen and his distinguished family has been famous for chivalry in the south for years. His statement also is unquestionably true beyond any possibility of doubt."
"Believe me, dear Senator Lodge, Yours truly, John Temple Lloyd Jeffreys."
"The writer of this letter, Mr. Jno. Jeffreys," Senator Lodge said, "is a member of a very well known family in Boston; a gentleman of honor and of the highest character, and well known to me personally. The evidence that Mr. Breckenridge made the statement attributed to him about the postscript, I therefore think cannot be successfully controverted, and if Mr. Breckenridge made this statement it can be absolutely believed."

Breckenridge Angry
"Mr. Breckenridge has sent one or two telegrams in which he refers to Dr. Bailey and myself in a very angry manner, which is not important but he characterizes his own conversation which Dr. Bailey reported, as 'back stairs gossip.' He does himself a great injustice by this, because he was a member of the Wilson administration and a most excellent assistant secretary of war. But he entirely fails to deny that essential part of the conversation. Mr. Garrison said yesterday in Washington: 'I am not being interviewed on any subject. I have no statement of any kind to make.' So that he also refuses to deny the existence of the postscript which he certainly would have done if it had been a mere fabrication by Dr. Bailey. Dr. Bailey is a gentleman of the highest character and standing and veracity. I have no doubt that he stated the conversation in substance with absolute truth."

MAMMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED?

Look at tongue! Move poisons from liver and bowels at once.
Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.
When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.
Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.
Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Syrup Fig Co." (Advertisement)

LOCAL MAN SIGNS TO WRESTLE WORLD WELTERWEIGHT HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Peter Buzukos, word welterweight wrestler, and Charlie Goodrich, of Bisbee, have been brought together and last night signed articles for a match to be held at the Old Opera House at 8:15 Monday night, November 6.
Under the articles, Buzukos agrees to throw the local man two times within an hour or forfeit a side bet of $400. It is said Goodrich is being backed rather heavily by local mining men, while restaurateurs of Brewery Gulch are staking some on the San Franciscan.
Goodrich went into training yesterday and stripes well. He worked out with two local boys and seemed to be toying with them a large part of the time, except once when he hurts one of the boy's arms and the latter retired.
Buzukos also is drawing crowds daily to the Y. M. C. A. to see him work on the mat with some of the local wrestlers.
Two preliminaries will precede the main event.

nee reviewed the parade for an hour and a half and left it still passing. For four blocks between the hall and the hotel the crowd was so dense that Mr. Hughes' car had to creep at a snail's pace. About a block from the hall it came to a stop in the jam, surrounded by thousands of persons who called on him for a speech. He finally rose.
"I would like to speak to you," he said, "but I cannot do so. The crowd in the hall has been waiting a long

MORE TROOPS GUARDS LINE WEST OF DOUGLAS.

DOUGLAS, Oct. 30.—An important redistribution of troops was made today when two battalions of the Eighteenth Infantry were moved from Camp Harry J. Jones east of Douglas, to Camp Frederick Funston, west of here, occupying part of the camp vacated by the New Jersey troops. The reason is said to be to more efficiently guard the quartermaster's stores in that locality.

It Takes a Tailor to Make
MEN'S GOOD CLOTHING
Not a Printer
—PRINTERS' INK CAN DO WONDERS. It can make cotton look like wool.
But, it can't make cotton give the service that wool gives. It can take a steam-power suit of clothes and make it look like TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS' WORTH.
But the man who buys it will soon lose some of his confidence in human nature.
COTTON mixed with WOOL does not make a good fabric for men's clothing. All the printers' ink in the world to the contrary, notwithstanding.
AND CLOTHING tailored by machinery will not hold its shape—not even if you hot-iron it every day of the year.
STRICTLY all-wool, hand-tailored clothing for men—there's no getting away from the fact that that is the standard.
The House of KUPPENHEIMER fixed the standard in Men's and Young Men's good clothes—and they strictly adhere to it—this is our reason for featuring these clothes. YET, prices are no higher than some stores ask you to pay for the other kind.

But we didn't buy these Shirts in today's market, nor did we pay the prices that prevailed a month or two months ago—we thought we could force these skyrocketing prices—and the Shirts that we offer you today, were bought 'way last fall, they have been in our warehouse since January first, '16.
COLORS include gray, navy, oxford, tan, olive and brown; full cut and well-made, high or low collars, sizes 14 to 18. And offered at prices that hint of the good sense in buying more than actually needed right now.
